

Oxford County Advertiser

FRIDAY, MAY 28, 1886.

Entered as second class matter.

Post Office No. 100.

Dr. Dio Lewis is dead.

We learn that J. S. Hodgdon, a former employee in the tax collector's office has been discharged and is continuing the Republican caucus at Oxford, Saturday the following delegates were chosen:

George H. Jones, George Jones, B.

C. Hall and Henry Coy.

The Horse Breeder's Association.

The Oxford County Trotting Horse

Breeders' Association has permanently organized Saturday, May 13. A constitution and by-laws were adopted. The following officers were elected: Pres.

Dr. Geo. W. Brown; 1st Vice-Pres., W.

Thomson; 2nd Vice-Pres., W. H. Jones;

W. H. Jones; 3d Vice-Pres., Geo. F.

Yount; Sec'y., A. T. Maxim; So. Paris;

Traverse River, N. H. Pearce.

The Executive Committee is composed of fifteen persons. The following general committee were chosen: W. H. Jones;

W. H. Jones; 1st Vice-Pres., W. H. Jones;

W. H. Jones; 2nd Vice-Pres., W. H. Jones;

W. H. Jones; 3d Vice-Pres., W. H. Jones;

W. H. Jones; Sec'y., A. T. Maxim; So. Paris;

Traverse River, N. H. Pearce.

The object of the Association is to produce the interests of the horse breeders. At least one trotting meeting will be held each year. The Association starts on under favorable auspices.

Membership fee is $1.00, which entitles the member to all the privileges of the Association for one year.

Address the Secretary, A. T. Maxim,

So. Paris, or Dr. G. W. Brown, Norway, for circulars, by-laws, etc.

Candidates for Nomination.

There is considerable interest among the candidates of the county as to the make-up of the County ticket this fall.

So far as we have heard the following is the situation of affairs:

For Governor from the Eastern part of the county, Walter Perreault of Bangor and Charles Gilbert of Canton are the candidates with the chances in favor of the former. There will be two candidates from the west, one of which is J.

L. Fink, esp. of Brownfield.

For Sheriff, J. W. Chadbourne of Oxford, C. M. Wornell of Bethel and J. W.

Porter of Southport are candidates.

For Coroner, S. S. Stearns, esp. of Norway, E. H. Hester, esp. of Buck-field and E. C. Walker, esp. of Norway are the candidates. The next appear to be between the two former, and the friend will probably determine the nomination.

For Co. Commissioners, W. W. Whitmore appears to have a walk over in the contest for the other one will be of them. About of Rumford and a Bethel man.

Of other candidates we haven't learned except that J. F. Stanley will be likely to be nominated for Register of Deeds.

RYAN'S FOND.

Miss Wynne, daughter of S. G.

Wynne, was severely injured last week while out with a party of friends near May has been in a hospital for some time. She was very much alarmed when she was taken to the hospital.

The majority of her friends are doing well and planning and in some cases they have been to work on the highway.

Most of the land that remains unworked now has been left by reason of its being too wet.

Alonso felt has a very nice Holstein bull 14 months old which weighs 1000 lbs.

Charles A. Brooks, who lives near the foot of Bryant's Pond, while at work in his field last Friday saw a female deer freely walking about in the woods. Mr.

Brooks called his family out to see

EAST STONEMAN.

As I have not seen any report of the G.

A. H. Yule in your paper will give a sketch of it. It was held by Geo. F. Lem-

pien Post and Almon Richardson, Camp

Sons of Veterans. Considering the season of the year was not as favorable as could have been desired and a brief a time was given to make suitable preparation, yet it was as successful as could understand have been expected. The attendance of the Soldiers Corps

was called in requisition and although only a part of the time, those who were present all the time, those who were deemed valuable aid. The Fair commenced on the 28th of April and continued four days. The first evening was devoted to the following exercises:—A fine oration by Lawyer Stearns of Norway, to which followed music, both vocal and instrumental, and a stump speech by Addison

Holt, which caused much laughter. The second evening, a drama entitled "Sevente" was played. Some of the characters excellent in their parts, especially the troupe, who were well received. The third evening was devoted to dancings for all who delight in that amusement. The net afternoon to the sale of various articles of the Soldiers Corps and a number of many a hopeful heart.

The patient feeling of the Soldiers Corps candidate C. F. Small, who presented it to the three societies occupying the first place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

EAST STONEMAN.

As I have not seen any report of the G.

A. H. Yule in your paper will give a

sketch of it. It was held by Geo. F. Lem-

pien Post and Almon Richardson, Camp

Sons of Veterans. Considering the sea-

son of the year was not as favorable as

could have been desired and a brief a

time was given to make suitable preparation, yet it was as successful as could understand have been expected. The

attendance of the Soldiers Corps

was called in requisition and although

only a part of the time, those who were

present all the time, those who were

deemed valuable aid. The Fair commenced

on the 28th of April and continued four

days. The first evening was devoted to

the following exercises:—A fine oration

by Lawyer Stearns of Norway, to which

followed music, both vocal and instru-

mental, and a stump speech by Addison

Holt, which caused much laughter. The

second evening, a drama entitled "Sev-

ente" was played. Some of the characters

excellent in their parts, especially the

troupe, who were well received. The

third evening was devoted to dan-

cings for all who delight in that amusement. The net afternoon to the sale of

various articles of the Soldiers Corps

and a number of many a hopeful heart.

The patient feeling of the Soldiers Corps

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

candidate C. F. Small, who presented it

to the three societies occupying the first

place, Camp and Norway, for the best

EAST STONEMAN.

As I have not seen any report of the G.

A. H. Yule in your paper will give a

sketch of it. It was held by Geo. F. Lem-

pien Post and Almon Richardson, Camp

Sons of Veterans. Considering the sea-

son of the year was not as favorable as

could have been desired and a brief a

time was given to make suitable preparation, yet it was as successful as could understand have been expected. The

attendance of the Soldiers Corps

was called in requisition and although

only a part of the time, those who were

present all the time, those who were

deemed valuable aid. The Fair commenced

on the 28th of April and continued four

days. The first evening was devoted to

the following exercises:—A fine oration

by Lawyer Stearns of Norway, to which

followed music, both vocal and instru

_____

was at Berwick some more than two hundred lively meeting. The hall was crowded

1951

_____

_____

